

Chapter 1 review

1. Define agriculture and understand how it can be influenced by plant selection, propagation and production.
2. How have the early purposes of propagation changed as compared to the present?
3. How have plant exchanges impacted human growth and development?
4. How early does our scientific and horticultural literature date back to?
5. How early do our first greenhouses and nurseries date back to?
6. How has the Morrill Act affected teaching and research?
7. What are important components of our modern plant propagation industry?
8. What are the 3 components of plant propagation?