

Stock Plant Management Questions

1. List some commonly known plants that are propagated vegetatively.
2. (True or false) Plant patents expire in 15 years.
3. Stage 4 in the progression of cutting rooting involves development of the shoots and roots to form a well-defined canopy and rootball. What happens in Stage 1?
4. Describe a typical stock plant environment for greenhouse crops.
5. Describe general cultural requirements for greenhouse-based stock plant crops.
6. Hedging removes only the best quality cuttings from the stock plant.
7. Stage 4 requires more mist be applied to cuttings to reduce transpiration

OR...

7. Why are cuttings fertilized in Stage 4?
8. Describe the propagation environment in terms of reducing pest populations on clean stock.
9. What is Florel and why is it used in propagation?
10. Why are some woody ornamental stock plants sheared or hedged?